

West Drive Medical Center

with a population of just 50,000, it was very different from the megacity of today, with few structures taller than two storeys, and most built from brick or masonry.

west drive medical center

west drive medical center brampton